

I am a clergyperson
whose job it is to alert people to the importance and
possibilities of
ethical living,
howsoever their religious or political background. I am compelled to write in protest of the misuse of Sinclair's license
to use the air waves
of the USA.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy.

I will continue my protest and urge everyone with whom I have influence to do the same until Sinclair reforms its biased practices or loses its license.

Being on Boards of a multimillion
dollar local neighborhood
development corporation and the National Congress of Neighborhood Women,
a member in numerous national organizations, and a national clergy
council, I would urge you to take my alert seriously.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve

more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
